CLERK: Mr. President, the next bill is LB 94. There are no amendments on it, but there's a request by Senator Fowler to bracket LB 94 and LB 119 on Select File until other constitutional amendments can catch up with it. Signed, Senator Fowler.

PRESIDENT: Is there any objection to the bracketing? Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. President, I'd like to ask Mr. Fowler what his reasons are.

PRESIDENT: Senator Fowler.

SENATOR FOWLER: The intent of this motion is to enable this Legislature to consider all the constitutional amendments at one time so that we can pick and choose which ones we feel are the most significant. Also then decide which ones we think should go on the primary ballot and which on the general ballot. The intent is to prevent a glut of constitutional amendments at any one time. I think this tends to turn citizens of the State of Nebraska against the Legislature because they feel we're forcing responsibilities off on them. It seems to me we have plenty of time to consider the constitutional amendments because the election is not next year. There's no rush to get these on final reading and to come through. This is simply to hold these up until the others come out of committee, then as a body we can consider these
